Here's Something to Think About: The public buys more Goodyear Tires than any other kind—this is the eighteenth successive year. . . . The public wouldn't buy more Goodyear Tires if Goodyear did not offer greater value. . . . But they do offer greater value, hence they enjoy greater sales. . . . Are you wondering what to buy? Just ask yourself this simple question: "Why should I buy any tire but a Goodyear when a Goodyear costs no more?" . . . We think you'll decide it by coming right down to see us.

Back to nature! Yeah, by the time I got 28 boys fed and abated down at night and hooked whole flocks of mosquitoes I was too far back to C. (be civilized).

But I still like to see boys and to get out and spend a night in the open during the summer. Don't deny your kids at night!

Mark Megginson phases out of this philosophy. "I mean that the market's smallest child now is the one who can't keep the highest, kick the farthest, dive the deepest and come up the driest!"
